THREE LITTLE CHAPS.

They Worked Hard and Raised $10.30 for the Christmas Tree.

Herbert Spencer Collins, Jack Carter and Irving Cooper, three energetic little fellows, combined ages scarcely reached the sum of twenty-one years, started out recently to raise some money for THE EVENING WORLD'S Christmas Tree Fund. One of their first plans was to get up an "Aunt Sally" party, such as was described in THE EVENING WORLD & few satisfied with the amount, they began a canvass among their friends, and Saturday they visited The Evening World Office with a box contains 150.30, which they donated to the fund. Following is the list of their friends
